Subject:	Poor Services

Dear Mr. Salman Nasir Al-Farsi,

I am writing this email to inform you about the poor service of your staff last week.

I visited your hypermarket branch last Thursday, March 23, 2023 for routine shopping. I usually find your staff very friendly and helpful. However, that day I was extremely displeased with the rude behaviour shown by your sales people. For instance, when I asked them why there was a difference in price of the products in the hypermarket and those shown in the advertisement, they did not have any answers. Instead, they spoke impolitely to me. When I reported the issue to the manager, he also ignored me. I would like you to explain to your staff that such behaviour is unacceptable. I would still like you to inform me about the price difference mentioned above.

To make matters worse, when I checked the shopping receipt at home, I found that your hypermarket had charged me with Value Added Tax (VAT) for the grocery and fruits. Please find attached screenshot of the receipt showing the VAT information. I would like to know why it was included in the bill. I would like you to compensate me for it. Otherwise, I will have no other choice but to report your hypermarket to the Consumer Protection Authority.

I look forward to your explanation regarding the points above.

Yours sincerely,

Ahmed Said Al-Ansari
