SECTION-I

Multiple Choice Questions; Encircle the right answer (10 x 1=10 Marks)

1. What is creativity often defined as?
A. The ability to memorize information
B. The ability to produce original ideas or solutions
C. The ability to follow instructions precisely
D. The ability to work alone

2. What is the purpose of brainstorming in the opportunity recognition process?
A. To evaluate business ideas
B. To generate several ideas related to a specific topic
C. To finalize business decisions
D. To market new products

3. The gap between what is currently available and what could be possible is known as:
A. Business opportunity gap
B. A new business idea
C. An environmental factor
D. None of the above

4. Entrepreneurship is often associated with:
A. Accounting and bureaucracy
B. Risk aversion and conformity
C. Innovation, creativity, and social impact
D. Predictability and stability

5. Which of the following is not an element of the Business Model Canvas (BMC)?
A. Customer segments
B. Value proposition
C. SWOT analysis
D. Revenue streams

6. Which of the following is a reason people choose to be entrepreneurs?
A. To work under someone else's direction.
B. To pursue financial rewards.
C. To limit personal responsibility.
D. To avoid pursuing their own ideas.

7. What can prior experience help entrepreneurs do?
A. Improve leadership skills
B. Recognize business opportunities
C. Develop marketing strategies
D. Increase financial investments

الممسوحة ضوئيا بـ CamScanner

8. When observing trends, the citizens' purchasing power is considered to be within:

A. Economic Force

B. Social Force

C. Political Force

D. Technological Force

9. Which of the following is NOT a digital channel for customer engagement?

A. Internet, websites, and applications

B. Social media platforms

C. Telephone

D. Email marketing

10. At which stage of the Product Life Cycle do sales reach their highest point, offering opportunities for profit or new business ideas?

A. Introduction

B. Expansion

C. Maturity

D. Decline

الممسوحة ضوئيا بـ CamScanner

4

SECTION- II – Short Case Analysis

Multiple Choice Questions; Encircle the right answer after reading the case study

Case study: (4X1=4 Marks)

Case study: 1. Fatema works as project head for a large company to introduce new products in the market by using company resources. She is creative but she was working without risk as she is employed by the company. What role Fatema is playing here?

A. Entrepreneurship
B. Intrapreneurship
C. Business owner
D. None of the given option

Case study: 2. Omar is preparing to start his own business after graduating from university. He understands that having a creative idea is the crucial first stage in his journey. After brainstorming several business ideas, he needs to move to the:

A. Insight stage
B. Evaluation stage
C. Incubation stage
D. Preparation stage

Case study: 3. MarkeetEx is a start-up that identified a market gap in delivering affordable and fresh groceries in urban areas. They observed trends such as increasing urban migration and the growing demand for convenience. The founders used social media extensively to market their services, creating awareness among busy professionals who lacked time for grocery shopping. What trend did MarkeetEx capitalize on to create its business model?

A. Technological Advance
B. Growing demand for convenience
C. Government policy changes
D. Aging population

Case study: 4. In urban communities, a team of environmentally aware entrepreneurs launched Sustainable Living Solutions, offering eco-friendly items like compost bins and biodegradable products. Their arrival encouraged existing businesses to explore sustainable offerings. What kind of solutions do "Sustainable Living Solutions" provide?

A. Eco-friendly items
B. High-tech gadgets
C. Automotive services
D. Financial consulting

SECTION-III – Discussion Questions

6

الممسوحة ضوئيا بـ CamScanner

6

Answer the following questions (3X2= 6Marks)

1. Understanding various business structures are crucial for entrepreneurs when choosing the appropriate form for their ventures. Discuss three forms of business organizations and outline their key differences.

[1] sole proprietorships: is owner by only one individual, and he start from zero to generate his business, Also, he has unlimited personal liability for risks that associated with project.

3

[2] partnerships: is owner by two individual or more, and all owners assume the risks that associated with business. Also, benefits from skills or abilities for owners and this head to generate new ideas for product or services.

[3] corporations: is owner by grap of entreprenurs, and employees not assume the risks that associated with business, only should them innovation and creativity for generate ideas or develop products and services. Also, this form more complex and difficult for generate and maintain compared sole proprietoships and partnerships.

CamScanner الممسوحة ضوئيا بـ

2. How does entrepreneurship drive economic growth? Discuss three key significance of entrepreneurship and its impact on the economy.

1 create new job opportunities: entreprenurs need to workforce to operations,

3

2 stimulate competition: this make entreprenurs to generate new ideas for products or services, and develop or improve this services.

3 SMEs: when this companies get capital from government, to achieveing or generate project for origin or for comunity aspecially in tourism trend, then lead to attractive more of people from other cities and next will increase profits.

الممسوحة ضوئيا بـ CamScanner